

Paul's Letter to Titus

¹ Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of the elect of God and the acknowledging of the truth, which is according to godliness: ² Unto the hope of life everlasting, which God, who lieth not, hath promised before the times of the world: ³ But hath in due times manifested his word in preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Saviour: ⁴ To Titus my beloved son, according to the common faith, grace and peace from God the Father, and from Christ Jesus our Saviour. ⁵ For this cause I left thee in Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, and shouldest ordain priests in every city, as I also appointed thee: ⁶ If any be without crime, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or unruly. ⁷ For a bishop must be without crime, as the steward of God: not proud, not subject to anger, not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre: ⁸ But given to hospitality, gentle, sober, just, holy, continent: ⁹ Embracing that faithful word which is according to doctrine, that he may be able to exhort in sound doctrine, and to convince the gainsayers. ¹⁰ For there are also many disobedient, vain talkers, and seducers: especially they who are of the circumcision: ¹¹ Who must be reprov'd, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. ¹² One of them a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slothful bellies. ¹³ This testimony is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; ¹⁴ Not giving heed to Jewish fables and commandments of men, who turn themselves away from the truth. ¹⁵ All things are clean to the clean: but to them that are defiled, and to unbelievers, nothing is clean: but both their mind and their conscience are defiled. ¹⁶ They profess that they know God: but in their works they deny him; being abominable, and incredulous, and to every good work reprobate.

¹ But speak thou the things that become sound doctrine: ² That the aged men be sober, chaste, prudent, sound in faith, in love, in patience. ³ The aged women, in like manner, in holy attire, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teaching well: ⁴ That they may teach the young women to be wise, to love their husbands, to love their children, ⁵ To be discreet, chaste, sober, having a care of the house, gentle, obedient to their husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. ⁶ Young men, in like manner, exhort that they be sober. ⁷ In all things shew thyself an example of good works, in doctrine, in integrity, in gravity, ⁸ The sound word that can not be blamed: that he, who is on the contrary part, may be afraid, having no evil to say of us. ⁹ Exhort servants to be obedient to their masters, in all things pleasing, not gainsaying: ¹⁰ Not defrauding, but in all things shewing good fidelity, that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things: ¹¹ For the grace of God our Saviour hath appeared to all men; ¹² Instructing us, that, denying ungodliness and worldly desires, we should live soberly, and justly, and godly in this world, ¹³ Looking for the blessed hope and coming of the glory of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ, ¹⁴ Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and might cleanse to himself a people acceptable, a pursuer of good works. ¹⁵ These things speak, and exhort and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

that they be not unfruitful. ¹⁵ All that are with me salute thee: salute them that love us in the faith. The grace of God be with you all. Amen.
